

The Gary Barnes Pre-Business Scholarship is presented annually to a full-time student registered at Huron who is passionate about business and is pursuing a pre-Ivey program, and who is going on to continue their education at the Ivey Business School in their third year. A qualifying student must not also be receiving a Hellmuth Scholarship. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated financial need based on criteria established by Huron; to mature students; or to students who resumed their academic careers after a significant interruption.

The application deadline is June 15, 2020.
